Keynote Speaker Jasmine Grace Marino
Trafficked. Recovered. Redeemed.

A survivor of sex trafficking and drug addiction, Jasmine uses her lived experience to consult with healthcare professionals, law enforcement, educators and non-profit organizations on topics including safe homes, sex trafficking red flags, prevention strategies and survivor support.

Plenary Session Elizabeth L. Jeglic, Ph.D.
The Identification of Red Flag Grooming Behaviors

New research has determined specific pre-offense behaviors that can be proactively identified and linked to sexual grooming. The implications of this research for education, prevention, and investigation of child sexual abuse will be discussed.

Workshops

National Center for Missing and Exploited Children
Debra Ortiz-Pardi & Melissa Shaw

NCMEC Resources for Child Sexual Exploitation Cases

Presenters will share data, insights and activities as seen through their unique lens. Cyber Tipline data from 2022 will be presented highlighting current trends including financial sextortion and self-produced imagery. Survivor resources, prevention messaging and survivor-informed training for law enforcement and child serving professionals will be shared.

Elizabeth L. Jeglic, Ph.D.

Does Adult Sexual Abuse Also Involve Grooming?

The prevalence of sexual grooming behaviors in cases of adult sexual violence will be discussed, with the goal of understanding the pre-offense behaviors and tactics used by perpetrators. As well as how the empirical research can be used to inform sexual violence prevention, detection, and investigation.
